valueline

now extended to over 800 parts

Following the exceptionally positive response to the valueline range launch in January 2010, MAN Genuine Parts is pleased to announce a significant increase to the range with over 800 parts now available.

The introduction of valueline is part of an ongoing commitment by MAN to give you even more quality, more reliability, more choice and more value. These popular, fast-moving parts are the identical original parts that go into the construction of our MAN trucks. There's no compromise on quality, reliability or performance.

Why buy Genuine MAN?

As well as competitive pricing from the valueline range, genuine MAN replacement parts offer many other significant benefits. Genuine MAN parts are originally designed and engineered for your trucks which means they fit precisely, first time. There are over 45,000 parts available in stock in the UK, with 120 MAN trained parts interpreters nationwide offering experience, advice and knowledge. Our free delivery service through 66 network members is supported by 300 delivery vans throughout the UK offering prompt delivery times. All this, of course, backed-up by the MAN worldwide genuine parts guarantee.

The valueline range continues to be extended and now boasts over 800 fast-moving part numbers within the programme.

The parts shown are just a selection from this range which will continue to grow in 2011.

To find out more parts information and keep up to date on all the latest offers, contact your local MAN parts dealer or post the attached reply card.

Keep your truck the way it was built –
MAN Genuine Parts

A valued part of your business

MAN Genuine Parts – a better way of taking care of customers

Quality is irreplaceable

No one knows MAN vehicles like MAN themselves. Using precision-made MAN parts means your vehicle will perform better and last longer. If you want your truck to go the distance, give it the parts it deserves – MAN Genuine Parts.

Don't assume all replacement parts are equal. All genuine new and reconditioned MAN parts come with a comprehensive warranty throughout the UK. You also have the confidence that all parts sold are 100% MAN approved, guaranteed for economy, performance and reliability. You can now have all of this for less when you buy from our new 'valueLine' range.

Just in time parts

For MAN owners, we are the best source for authorised parts. Over 45,000 separate lines are available from stock at your dealership or delivered next day from our central UK warehouse. With 300 MAN Parts Vans on the road, many dealers open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, it is a service you can believe in. So whether it's electrics, engine parts, body parts, exhaust systems, consumables, accessories or official MAN clothing you require, there's really only one sensible choice – and that's your MAN dealer.

Whenever you need it, help is at hand

Each dealer is also backed by the MAN Mobile24 roadside emergency service, these locations provide comprehensive service and support for all your MAN trucks, coaches and buses, as well as ERF trucks. We provide professional and prompt responses to your needs – wherever you are in the UK, WE ARE MAN.
